Fond pride of dress is sure a very curse.

Ere Fancy you consult, consult your purse.—Franklin.

To appear well is not necessarily to practice extravagance.—The ladies of Carson can all acknowledge that the prevailing low prices, of Olcovich Bros., Summer fabrics, is one reason why they find it to their advantage to buy their dry goods of that well-known firm. For anything in the shoe line call at Olcovich Bros. j3

For stylish millinery, neat work, and low prices go to Mrs. Maud Stine's. A fine assortment of both trimmed and untrimmed hats. Children's fine hats a specialty. Sailor hats in red, navy blue and brown, 50 cents each. Ladies' sun hats 50 cents each. No trouble to show goods.

How CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Another fine assortment of hats bonnets, laces, ribbons, tips, French crepes and velvets just received at Mrs. Maude Stine's. m251w

Some one has resurrected the skeleton of Cleopatra and wants to sell it to the Chicago fair for $80,000. This seems a steep figure for the ossification, but if these bones had Cleopatra's flesh on them and the breather apparatus all sound, they would come high in Chicago.

"If a French experimenter is not misled," says a technical paper, "a new saccharine is assured, the sweetest substance known to science." Science ought to take a well-bred glance at some of the spring bonnets at Mrs. Knowles'.

A red hot campaign has already appeared in California. James V. Coleman Democratic candidate for Governor is accused by a Los Angeles paper of wearing pajamas. The rank and file of the Bourbon party draw the line on a man guilty of this offense.

Black ice-cream is the new gastronomic fad. It is colored by charcoal water and prunes. When your girl wants ice-cream call for black ice cream and if there is not any, get up and leave in disgust, taking your girl with you, if she concludes to come.

A great sensation has been caused in England by a woman going on the stage in tights who is a daughter of a Bishop of the Established church. She can come out West and be well received, as ancestral disabilities don't count out here.

One Washington dispatch says that the silver men are very confident, and another says that in view of no silver legislation Wall street is unloading. Wall street may be unloading and getting ready for a fresh hold. The recent leap in silver must have nettled the Shylocks a good sum.

The Wabaska Mangler is being sued for $500 damages by a man whom the Mangler said had such loud feet that his wife forbade him access to the milk cellar for fear of turning the cream. The Mangler says that it will put the plaintiff's feet in evidence and stick him for the costs. Bring on the jury.

Maude Fisher, a religious girl, eighteen years old, committed suicide at New Britain, Conn. Sunday, by drowning herself in a reservoir, because she thought she was too wicked to live. The girl was a member of the Episcopal Church and very quiet. She was known as a most zealous Christian and was blameless in her life, but was continually complaining that she was unable to live up to the exalted ideal which she had set up for herself.

The recent speech of Congressman McKinley of Ohio before Congress on the pending tariff bill, has just been issued in pamphlet form. The speech includes valuable statistical tables, and is an admirable presentation of the advantages of the principles of protection, as embodied in the new Tariff Bill.

Send a two-cent stamp for a copy to the American Protective Tariff League, 23 West 23d Street, New York City.

A PIUTE CHIEF JUSTICE.—Dan Numinia the Piute Chief justice of the Pyramid Lake Reservation is in the city visiting Bill Gibson. He is accompanied by Natchez. Dan holds court for the Indians on the reservation. He is not much of a Coke and Blackstone lawyer but as Gibson says: He's mighty sound on "personal settlements."

THE REASON WHY.—Gov. Stevenson informs the Journal that he has received an invitation to attend the 4th of July celebration at Reno, but in view of the fact that he and his staff and all the military propose to attend the State Fair at Reno this Fall, he thinks that he will visit Virginia on the 4th.

A GREAT TREAT.—To-morrow evening the greatest dramatic treat at this city has witnessed in years will be produced at the Opera House. The star is one of the new great actors of America, and the play has a wealth of realism and scenic effect that makes it one of the wonders of the stage. The New York Times says of Paul Kauvar:

"The piece to be produced at McKissick's Opera House Friday evening: The play has strongly written passages and effective climaxes. It contains a good deal of forcible dialogue. Paul Kauvar, enivourous, self-sacrificing, alert of action, is yet a philosopher and a dreamer. The personages are well drawn and are individually interesting. This is equivalent to saying that "Paul Kauvar" is a play of uncommon merit."

The box sheet is now open and seats are being rapidly taken.

A New Ore Process

Charles Bachelor, who is connected with Thomas Edison in the scheme of reducing ores by electricity will arrive in this city tomorrow morning. He will spend a day in Carson and then visit the Comstock mines. He is working on a process with Edison that will revolutionize mining and ore reduction.

The proposition is to test low grade and rebellious ores by the electric process. He will investigate the proposition while in this State.

ANOTHER LOTTERY.—The Choctaw Lottery company of Arkansas, which obtained a franchise at the last session of the Choctaw Legislature, has elected officers and is ready to commence business.
